DIAMOND BAR, Calif., October 4, 2023 – APR Consulting, Inc., a certified minority- and woman-owned business enterprise and trusted talent acquisition and workforce solutions provider, today announced that veteran staffing and recruiting executive Avi Khilnani has joined the company as head of global strategy. In this new role, Khilnani will focus on leveraging the company's current momentum into new opportunities and partnerships that will help pave the way for expansion and future growth.

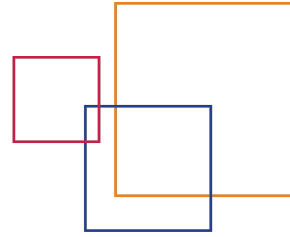

Recognized as an industry thought leader, Khilnani is a frequent panelist at Staffing Industry Analysts (SIA) events and a presenter at national meetings. Prior to joining APR, he held executive positions at eTeam, where he was global COO, as well as The Intersect Group, Fastaff & US Nursing, Randstad Professionals, Yoh, KForce, and Adecco. He is also a top-ranked graduate of Randstad's Executive Blue Chip Leadership Program and holds a B.A. in speech communication and business administration from California State University at Fullerton.

"I've known Avi for many years, tracked his career, and watched with interest and admiration his rise within the staffing industry," said Aaron Stone, chief operating officer of APR Consulting. "With our overarching goal of establishing a global presence and an initial focus on expanding direct hire services, I knew the time was right to bring his expertise in cultivating new markets, relationships, and global recruitment capabilities to our team at APR."

Said Khilnani, "Without a doubt, my decision to join APR was about the people, the stability of the leadership team, and the 'people first' company culture." He added: "I've had many opportunities to excel in my career, but here I know I can have an impact. It's a way to take all the accomplishments and experiences that I've accumulated over the years and capitalize on them to make a very big difference for APR and our clients."

"This is an important time in the evolution of our company and our industry," said Linda Stone, CEO and founder of APR Consulting. "Having someone with Avi's breadth of knowledge and global perspective will help us write the next chapter of our company story."
